

Items that cannot be sold by B-Logistics:

- Excessive water damage
- Advanced Reading Copy or Proof Copy of a book (will say “not for resale” on the cover)
- Teacher’s editions
- Food stains
- Items in the book (bugs, gum, unidentifiable goop). If you can clean the book of these items, please do so and scan it in.
- Missing pages
- Very damaged covers (holes, bite marks, deep cuts, etc)
- Torn pop-ups
- Workbooks/coloring books that have been completed/filled in
- Broken binding with pages missing or loose
- Single books that are intended to be sold as a set (ie: Volume 5 of Volumes 1-10)
- Encyclopedia Sets
- Older (older than 2000) dictionaries and thesaurus
- Older (older than 2000) dated (on cover) finance / travel books. Example “1980 Travel Guide to San Francisco”).
- Foreign language books with the exception of Spanish.
- Computer books older than 2000
- Game cartridges
- Music CD singles
- Magazines

While these items cannot be sold by B-Logistics, they may be recycled. Therefore, a trade-off between higher shipping costs and higher sorting costs exists which may be best evaluated per B-Logistics client.
